EXPERIENCE ALL THE EXCITEMENT OF A PACK EXPO SHOW - IN ATLANTA!

For anyone who's ever attended a PACK EXPO show, the name PACK EXPO means one thing: INNOVATION. And that's what you can expect from the all-new PACK EXPO Southeast—an exciting array of the latest innovations in packaging and processing. Don't miss your chance to connect with the industry's top suppliers and explore the possibilities for your supply chain and production line.

SHOW OVERVIEW

PACK EXPO Southeast 2025 will be the debut of the premier packaging and processing show in the Southeast. The show will return to the region every two years. Like other PACK EXPO shows, PACK EXPO Southeast will bring together all the elements that lead to packaging and processing innovation.

- 400* exhibiting companies offering packaging and processing solutions
- 7,000* professionals from all types of CPG companies and dozens of vertical markets, seeking solutions to drive throughput, efficiency, safety, sustainability, shelf impact and more
- Free educational opportunities and knowledge-sharing sessions
- Networking events to foster conversation and connections
